

Division on Career Development and Transition

“Transition Rocks”

November 6-8, 2014

PARTNERSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

*The Renaissance Cleveland Hotel
Cleveland, Ohio*

During the Conference's two days, there will be several concurrent sessions dealing with topics in the following areas: Assessment; Student Diversity & Multicultural Approaches; Transition Approaches for Specific Student Disability Groups; Postsecondary Education Services and Transition Employment; Family Partnerships in Transition; Program Evaluations; Self-Determination & Student Involvement; Vendor/Exhibitor Presentations; Community Partnerships in Transition; and Aligning Transition with Standards and School Reform.

Along with concurrent sessions on the topics mentioned above, there will be several social activities, such as a Welcome Reception, and a Thursday and Friday breakfast and Friday lunch.

We invite you to consider forming a partnership with the Division on Career Development and Transition in support of our conference. There are several levels of involvement from which to choose, allowing you to customize your partnership to best suit the needs of your organization and best meet the needs of conference participants.

IF YOU HAVE ANY QUESTIONS, PLEASE CONTACT: DR. CINDI NIXON: cnixon@fmarion.edu

THE MISSION OF DCDT

The mission of DCDT is to promote national and international efforts to improve the quality of and access to, career/vocational and transition services, increase the participation of education in career development and transition goals and to influence policies affecting career development and transition services for persons with disabilities.

CONFERENCE AUDIENCE

Given the broad reach of our mission, DCDT members represent a diverse group of transition stakeholders that include teachers, family members, agency personnel, college students and faculty, and professionals from other disability-related fields as well as persons with disabilities. The attendance at previous conferences has been approximately 1000.
